

WOLF CHILDREN'S TRAP THEATRE-IN-THE-WOODS

Ready for an adventure? Look for Trail Blazes, paint marks on tree trunks, to make sure you stay on the correct path. Remember, you are sharing the trail with lots of animals that call Wolf Trap National Park for the Performing Arts their home, so make sure you watch your step! If you have questions about what trail is right for you, please ask a Park Ranger or a Wolf Trap employee for assistance.

	Gravel Path
	Wolf Trap TRACK Trail
	Wolf Trap Trail
	Shortcuts
	Garden		Picnic Tables
	Mountain Laurel View		Restroom

From dancers leaping on the stage to ducks swimming in the pond, there's so much to see at Wolf Trap National Park for the Performing Arts. During your visit, see if you can find some of these things:

- Bird
- Mushroom
- Moss
- Wildflower
- Crawling bug
- Flying bug
- Smooth rock
- Rough bark
- Something human-made
- Running water

Shows JUN 20-AUG 3 at 10:30 AM

WOLFTRAP.ORG/WOODS